RE: Public Records Request for Personnel File for

Dear Mr. Shay,

While preparing your public records request for the personnel file for the following items were redacted pursuant to Ohio law:

1. Pursuant to State ex rel. McCleary v. Roberts, 88 Ohio St.3d 365 (2005), and State ex rel. Fant v. Enright, 66 Ohio St.3d 186 (1993), "to the extent that any item contained in a personnel file is not a 'record,' i.e. does not serve to document the organization, etc., of the public office, it is not a public record and need not be disclosed." Further, pursuant to R.C. 149.43(a)(1)(p), personal and familial information of police officers is not subject to a public records request. Accordingly, any reference to the following has been redacted:
 - personal email address
 - current and prior home addresses
 - home and cellular telephone number
 - Bank account numbers
 - Addresses of neighborhood background check which surround home address
 - Home addresses of all police officers mentioned
 - Police badge numbers
2. Pursuant to State ex rel. Beacon Journal Publ'g Co. v. Akron, 20 Ohio St.3d 605 (1994), social security numbers of public employees are not subject to disclosure. Therefore, all social security numbers have been redacted.
3. Pursuant to R.C. 149.43(A)(7)(f), familial and spousal information, including beneficiary status, of police officers and public employees are not subject to disclosure. Accordingly, all information pertaining to spouse or family has been redacted.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

William M. Ondrey Gruber

Re: Termination of employment

Dear Mr. Cimperman, you have been inactive with the police department for the last 18 months. You have failed to meet your obligations and you have failed to notify anyone at the police department, including myself in any way, as to your reasoning or situation. Therefore, your position with the West Farmington Police Department has been terminated.

You are required without delay, to return immediately all keys, badges, patches and any other property in your possession that is the property of the West Farmington Police Department.
